Acknowledgement of Country

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Kaurna people, the traditional custodians on whose ancestral lands and waters we gather, train and compete.

We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of the Kaurna people to country, and we respect and value their past, present and ongoing connection to the land and their cultural beliefs.

Welcome from the Host Principal

On behalf of Loreto College, Marryatville, we are thrilled to welcome you to 103rd edition of Head of the River. Today, the very best student rowers from across South Australia come together to celebrate athleticism and the unbreakable bonds of teamwork, perseverance, and dedication.

Rowing, with its emphasis on teamwork and precision, creates a unique sense of unity as each rower works in perfect harmony with their crew to achieve success. Like all sports, it teaches the importance of collaboration, communication, and trust, but unlike other sports, rowing requires an unparalleled level of coordination—every stroke relies on the synchronised effort of the entire crew. Through the shared challenges of training and racing, students forge lasting bonds and develop leadership skills that transcend the boat, equipping them for success both on and off the water.

It is through this spirit of collaboration and dedication that events like the Head of the River come to life. On that note, I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to Rowing South Australia for their continued support in making this event possible, and to Adelaide University for their generous sponsorship. Their commitment to fostering excellence in the sport of rowing ensures that the Head of the River continues to thrive and inspire the next generation of athletes.

A special thank you must also go to the incredible team of volunteers, led by the Loreto College rowing parent committee, whose tireless efforts behind the scenes have been instrumental in making this event possible. Their dedication and hard work are truly the backbone of today's success.

I would also like to express deep gratitude to Tom Beresford, Head of the River Project Manager, for his leadership, unwavering support, and invaluable contributions. His efforts have helped make this event the success it is, and we are truly grateful for his dedication.

We are proud to celebrate this monumental event with all of you and look forward to the unforgettable moments of racing ahead. Let the spirit of teamwork and determination guide every stroke as we make history at the 103rd Head of the River!
